Massachusetts Average High School Graduation Rates by School Ranking and English Learner Population, 2021

ELL students tend to graduate at similar rates as their non–ELL peers, regardless of school ranking and English Learner population size. Ranking is based on scores on college readiness, curriculum, state assessment proficiency, state assessment performance, and previous graduation rates.

Source: Massachusetts Department of Elementary and Secondary Education | Visual by Raquel Rosenbloom